

What's New!

November 2014

November: Feature Story

Homelessness on the Mendocino Coast

by Anna Shaw

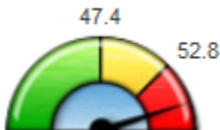

“Editor’s Note: Housing and homelessness play a key role in community health and well-being. This month, Healthy Mendocino continues to explore housing issues throughout Mendocino County by focusing on the current trends on the Mendocino Coast.”

Homelessness is an issue which affects the whole of Mendocino County. The coast of Mendocino (between Gualala and Westport) has an estimated 40% of the county’s homeless. . .”

View the full article here.

Featured Indicator

Rental Affordability

About 60 percent of Mendocino County residents spend more than 30 percent of their income on rent. When rental costs are high it can place financial strain on households, especially low-income households. This can lead to households having to choose between paying rent, buying food, or

Fresh Look for Healthy Mendocino

Healthy Mendocino started November with a fresh new look. There are new ways to access data and a sleek, more modern feel to the site. If you would like more assistance to learn how to best navigate the new site, please contact the site administrator to schedule a presentation today.

Take a Survey

Healthy Mendocino is helping University of the Pacific conduct an assessment of the utility bill, creating financial hardships for vulnerable families. Learn more at HealthyMendocino.org.

public transportation needs in Mendocino County by posting a survey on the Healthy Mendocino website. You can access it from the home page, or by clicking this link.

To subscribe or unsubscribe please contact us here.

To ensure you receive our monthly newsletter, make sure you add research@mendochildren.org to your address book.

This email was sent to you by research@mendochildren.org.
As a subscriber of FIRST 5 Mendocino, we'll periodically send you information via e-mail. If you wish to discontinue receiving these types of e-mails, you may opt out by clicking here.

Powered by NonProfitEasy®

166 East Gobbi Street, Ukiah, CA, USA, 95482